

Confederates in several brilliant campaigns, and U.S. Grant brings the city to its knees on the Fourth of July, 1863.

History comes alive in a vibrant, personal way as the story is told by the people who lived it. Listen to words from the diaries of housewives, the letters of soldiers, the musings of Abraham Lincoln himself. Watch as the battles are reenacted with patriotic fervor and a great passion for accuracy. View rare photographs of this war; hear the fascinating comments of modern-day historians. This is a video to watch--and marvel at--again and again. Lasting 200 minutes in all, it has 4 different episodes--one for each battle. A production of A&E and The History Channel. VHS format.
